Dear John,

Michael came and visited again and shared a few things with me. I will now share those meant for you and the organization.

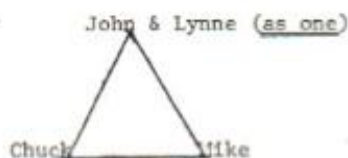

"It has been some time since the group of individuals have come together to form a vortex of energy on the Earth, as you and the group surrounding you have. This group, as the energies of each merge together to form the foundation, shall be a great powerhouse of energy and knowledge. It is through this powerhouse, then, that we can begin to function better on the evolution of humanity and hopefully help shape the course of history to a more positive expression.

Yes, there have been other groups such as this come together in the past to serve in this manner. Jim can share more with you on this for he has been present at several of them and knows their history.

Each time with a group coming together we learn; as does the souls involved, about harmonizing energies and through that balance find an outer expression of service. Sometimes the groups work more on inner planes dealing with the mental or spiritual changes needed, and at times they deal more on an outer level with the physical and emotional changes. It is truly hoped that within the foundation this time a balance of these two will be accomplished. This is a great challenge and one we hope will be successful, and one we will give much attention and strength to help it succeed.

This is one reason of the many reasons, why I have brought Jim to you and into the picture of the foundation. He could be the means of which we could focus more on the inner plane activity, as well as teach others in the foundation to assist in this area as well. Also, he serves as a communication link and as confirmation point for much of what you, John, and the others receive from us, but sometimes doubt. Jim has much service to perform to humanity this time in this life, through your aid and strength. It is up to him to decide his form of service and how much of himself he wishes to give up, to aid others.

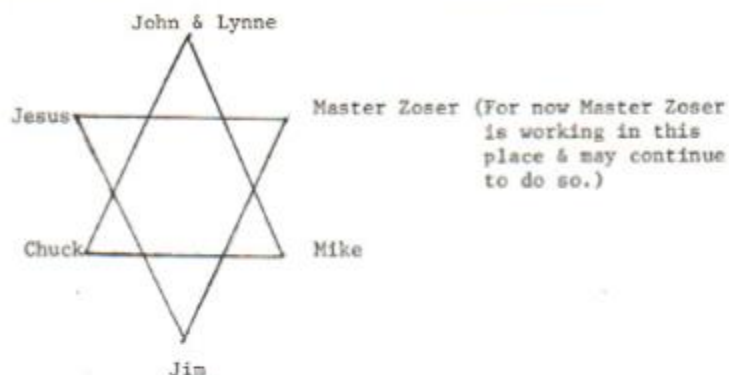

As for the other level of the organization we work and focus a great deal of energy through several people at the time to manifest the spiritual light to man. The coming together of two energies as one, spiritually, that of John and Lynne, was a spiritual marriage of energy which has produced a spiritual child, the foundation. It takes that masculine/feminine principle to manifest balance and birth. This is true of the birth of a physical child as well as an idea. Sometimes it can manifest from the coming together of the masculine/feminine principle within one soul and a spiritual manifest within the individual, but here we have brought John and Lynne together to give forth birth to this foundation. Then we brought forth Mike and Chuck to serve as other focuses for the foundation's energy. Thus, we have a triangle, a trinity of energies.

This serves as a focus and a balance of the trinity energies which must work through the foundation if it is to succeed. This also explains the first level of the symbol I gave Jim so many years ago.

Next we have the downward triangle of energy. Where the upward triangle manifests the trinity energy, for humanity to upgrade his physical evolution so too we must have a balance of that energy to help in upgrading the spiritual evolution of the foundation and humanity. Thus, we have a flow downward of the trinity energy of light to merge and harmonize with the upward flow. The base of this triangle is Jim who serves as a focus and expression of this light. It is up to Jim to begin making changes in direction in his life expression as to how much we can accomplish on this level. Much as each of you have and will have to decide on how much service you will perform within the foundation and what changes must come about to do so. The upward triangle is outer service, the downward triangle is inward service. The three points or focus of energy are: Jim at the base with the Master Jesus at one point representing the Michael energies and Hierarchy, and yet another Master whose identity will be released later as their energy begins to express more within the foundation. Thus we have

Over this group of servers I overshadow and work to balance and share through each, thus in the center is my sword of power, serving as my signature of strength and love.

Upon the sword is a snake, indicating the power to manifest within the foundation and signifies the potential healing power the foundation holds. The wings extending from the sword-cross indicates the illumination of spirit within the foundation and signifies the great Spirit awareness and purpose of the foundation is meant to express.

Over this emblem is yet another six pointed star which joins the star you see perpendicularly. Thus forming the 12-pointed star as I gave through Jim an explanation recently. The six on this star of David are Masters of a hierarchy above this one from which I speak. Their role will come in time as the people and the foundation begins to fulfill its purposes."

John, I hope this helps you some in seeing things in a better light. I found it interesting and I hope you all will, as well.

Hope to see you soon!

In the Masters

Light & service,

Jim
